New Year's Day
Bank Holiday (Scotland)

Up 7.30. Cool sunny day but I did not go out. Quite pleased with the way I arranged the furniture yesterday though it seems rather cluttered. We have my bust by Epstein now cast in bronze so conspicuous on the marble column in the hall. Copied letters I wrote yesterday. Looked at Observer. Got out sherry for Peter who came to luncheon and we had a pleasant talk after. He seems to me to come to historical conclusions on insufficient evidence. Fell asleep in chair and then played [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] for John Mathews called. Drinks, some

and slept again in chair all evening

Up 7.30 Pleasant day

Up 7 and finished morning routine at 10
when I did a bit of telephoning and hunting for Miss Dr. J papers etc as usual and finally at 11 settled down to work on my letter to Halliday's and all the details he required. Luncheon of scrambled eggs and my usual Chili and grapes.
Worked a little on accounts and did not trust myself to a moment rest which turns out a 3 hours sleep. Went properly to bed 3.30. Up 5. Mended drawers.
Tea. Nothing in Saturday
E. Standard. Drinks.
Thomas arrived for dinner and night. Finished Halliday

Sunday, February 26

2nd Sunday in Lent

Slept late and skipped snoozing: Breakfast at 9.30 and Thomas was late too. He sat about and I left him reading the paper when I took my Adelaide letters to the post office in Chief P.O.
He had spent my long affected forms to see if the postage was 7/- Home 12.50 and Peter arrived soon after. We had pleasant lunch.
Peter is a good talky which Thomas is not
he has little to say and no manners. Gave Peter Tunnicliffe water colour Rest - up 7 drank and tha had not told me he wanted dinner and Maudie out - so he had to go out

Monday, February 27

Thomas spent night quite unexpectedly. I spent morning writing to Ellen Endicott Gladys Robertson came to luncheon and we talked at length about Peter and Thomas and Babbie and her grandson Melville Rested afternoon. Tea.
With Matilda opened parcels in C's wardrobe old unknown chair covers. W. card to Mr Shaw & Page. Ordered
upper Berth. Drinks Cocktail at E. Standard. Dinner Rested 9-11. Paid bills and as usual hunted for missing papers

Tuesday, February 28

Up & Breakfast 10. At eleven I went by bus to Lonsdale Square Islington which has always interested me with the uniform Gothic Revival houses now more derelict than ever. Back to Corner of Tottenham Court Road where I had lunch in the dive where I used to go in the Pullman days. Home at 3 and soon I went to rest. Up and tea 5.30. Tel fr. Mrs Taylor of 115 Gerald Rd. S.W. to say she is [illegible] Alan & Mary Delgado to dinner and evening. Then fell asleep to the concert. bed [illegible]

St. David's Day

Up 7.15 Breakfast 9.15
Spent morning reading
Two Statesmen and Times Lit. Sup. of last week for sending them to Mr Stewart Read Review of Summary of Ranton on St James matches I had lent volumes to Peter and then told him to take them to Apsley House without realising that I would have liked to look at them myself. Out to Post office and got some stamps and wrote letter to Mr Dock.
Home and went to rest.
Up and tea 5-30 Read E Standard. Fell asleep.
Dinner. Again asleep in chair

Thursday, March 2

Up 7. Washed hair
Lovely letter from Catharine

Friday, March 3

Ash Wednesday

Up 7. Breakfast 8.45

Letter fr. Mattox wi. Chanctonbury mortgages extended another 2 years. Cut stems of tulips to make a presentable vase. Studied the papers and draft letters that I want to write and leave in case of my death. Fixed up my account books. Lit fire in drawing room and sat looking out of window for Clemence Warring. She arrived about 1 o'c. and did not want anything to drink but we talked before and after lunch and I showed her [illegible] and china. She left about 3 and I had a walk in sunny garden. Rested. Tea. Alex telephoned and asked us to come for lunch.

She [illegible] Slept after dinner.

Saturday, March 4

Up 7 o'c. Another lovely Spring day. W Blackwood W. Rita. Luncheon home out to walk in sunny garden. Worked on magazine parts before and after resting. I am aware of practice as my eyesight has declined for they are not so professional as they were but I must practice and get back my proficiency. Cathy Roberts called up at dinner and Mattie put her off. I called her later and we had a pleasant talk. W. long letter to Rita. She seems to like Dedham to be near Eliot.

Sunday, March 5

3rd Sunday in Lent

Today I had one of my curious falls and hit my head and lost consciousness.
Taken at breakfast.
with one of my shocks of unconsciousness due I presume?
Mary dressed on my bed with Dr Lipman in attendance It seems I must have fallen as a bump was on my head and my lip. Pella came and I dozed through the day somehow. I believe that Bobby telephoned and was told that I was not well.
Peter came to dinner and sat with me. I was decidedly incapacitated and I can gain only a very hazy idea of the day but I believe it was pleasant as far as the weather went!

Monday, March 6

Got through the night comfortably sleeping sitting up. Dr. Toffman called in morning. He seemed to attribute my state to my fall. Peter came too. I slept more or less all day and did not have much to eat. I had drinks for Peter and myself. This was the day of Rowers party and she telephoned and was told that I was not well. I read Evening Standard and Times and sat up late.

Tuesday, March 7

Matilda brought me
a bunch of daffodil buds that opened out. Charming Dr Ripman came and Peter who got himself and me some sherry. He came too before dinner and made us Cocktails I slept a good deal
but not so well last night. Moaks came to see me and brought me one of her little ornamental boxes. Peter is very busy with his boxer horses on his immense drawing board.

Wednesday, March 8

Peter had an accident with a dust bin on the Tottenham Court Road and crushed off the top of his middle finger which he had bandaged in hospital It was very painful and interfered with his drawing It was a misty sort of day with a little glas sunshine. Had terribly painful stiff neck which made it impossible for me to move. Dr Hoffman came to see me in the morning

Thursday, March 9

Dr Papman [illegible] visited me this morning but Peter has not come yet and it is now 7.30 I find arthritis in my shoulder and my back is still bad but not so bad. I hear that Mr Time and E. Standard and had a good luncheon Matilda is giving attention I have dealt with accounts and sent a check to Zeagas Fund Business letters have come and I hope I can deal with them tomorrow shoulder and neck still painful. Rested evening

Friday, March 10

Rather hazy trying to work up these days on Monday the 13th. I think Peter came with bandaged finger. He crushed the nail off in some sort of accident with a dust bin. I had a comfortable day with good lunch and dinner but I think I stayed in bed. Peters accident make work on his drawing difficult I think the weather has been good. Probably Cathy Robertson called up to inquire + Moure

Saturday, March 11

Another day in bed sleeping most of the time. Spent a good deal of time
reading Times Times Lit. Sup. New Statesman which I wrapped up and posted as usual to Mr Stewart Cellie telephoned but I don't think
he called to day.
Gladys Robertson
telephoned. I am still feeling the effects of my knock. But better on Sunday

4th Sunday in Lent

Struggled into my clothes and was sitting in chair by fire when Alix came to see me. She got me a drink of sherry and herself a drink of whiskey. She came soon after 12 as she had telephoned and I asked her to stay to lunch. Bobbie came at one o'c and they had luncheon in the dining room and I had mine on a tray. Peter telephoned at 6 o'c and we had a talk. Gladys R. tel.

Monday, March 13

Tuesday, March 21

Up late. Skipped shopping. Looked at Times. Out cold but sunny got red tulips at my Sloane St. Flower Stall and spent long time waiting for door-to-door 46 bus. Tried plan recommended by Ida of very little water for tulips. Gladys Robertson to lunch. She does not drink but I had a glass of Bishops mead. I tried talking to Gladys of things calling for intellect but that's not her line and I soon dropped it. She is very good for light family gossipless conversation. Slept afternoon and after dinner with usual tea & cocktail.

Then Gladys and John Mathias called. J.F. Thomas called. W.B.G. to Bruce.

Wednesday, August 2

Did not write this up till Aug 4. Can't remember what happened but probably Alfreda came to see me in the morning
Then in the afternoon
I came home in an ambulance with my perfect Nurse Marshall Brought up in a sort of half stretcher and put into bed in Gladys's room. Mrs Fry had got me a Cook Mrs Dalziel who came yesterday and had tea and dinner
and I rested & slept

Thursday, August 3

Woke seven o'clock
and rang for my night nurse Mrs Beckder.
She brought me water to wash my face and hands and then dry tea and orange for breakfast
I did not have any paper as Mr Maylin could not change my address in time Perhaps it was my cook Mrs Dalziel who brought breakfast. Dr Rippon an called soon after nine and after that I slept again Spent my day dress [illegible] Jeeps St for cheese. Then Alfred Edna and Gladys Robertson out Bricas. I sat up all the morning & [illegible] Mathews tel. I slept till 4.

My temporary Cook

Birthday of H.M. Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother (1900)

Called me at seven a bit early, but I roused myself and met the day. I had my orange and tea and looked at Times. Dr Repman called about eleven and told his stories but has nothing to say about my leg. Sat up and Alfreda Allie and Brian came for her. Then Mrs Fry came and I gave her sherry. Lunch and to rest. Slept deeply till 4.30. Tea and goodbye to Nurse Marshall. Got on by myself till night nurse came

Saturday, August 5

Woke 6 o'c and began to get to sleep when my night nurse came with basin to wash and clean my teeth. Had my tea and orange and then sat up resting. Finally nurse washed me and I sat up. Fell asleep. Dr. Kopman came. We had our usual pleasant talk and he said he would ask Flemming when I could walk. Soon after he left I had my luncheon and then I slept until nurse woke me at 5. Then I had tea and I finished the day as usual

Sunday, August 6

My night nurse called me at 7 am &
gave me a brief wash
and straightened my bed and arranged. I had an Oculist but my eyes and the dim lights do not - do not encourage reading
I waited a long time hoping Dr Rafman would come for the sake of her company and she arrived about 12
Then Ida came before one and had lunch with me. She has no maid and was glad of a square meal. Rested and I ordered them from Medley

All connected with my [illegible] going. Dennis and [illegible] [illegible] asleep

Thursday, September 14

up till Sunday. I don't think I did anything at all this day. Probably spent
a good deal of time
with papers and I think Alfreda telephoned from Amberley. I think it was a lovely sunny
day. I certainly slept no doubt. No telephones. I slept until tea time and then read Stendhal Matildas dans [illegible]

Friday, September 15

Alfred and Mabel
at Timbeally. Mouse came to luncheon as per invitation
I took things easily and spent a good deal of time following Scalanga events in the papers. After luncheon Peter did little but drank, having cup of tea and sleep.
Turned in for the night. If it — about the day if anyone came to see only I have forgotten as regularly as soon
as [illegible]
I believe it was a lovely day of sunshine

Dr [illegible] an enemy was one every morning and I can't - they were [illegible] evaluat- ing but his going to to be. I never speak of my trip or my health. All my family were at Amberley and I don't think I did anything all day. I believe but I cannot be [illegible] I slept all the afternoon as I always do.
Alfreda probably called up and Peter was at Amberley for the week end. He seems to enjoy the company of Thomas and Bobbie He certainly enjoy this. Rain was probably in the country

Sunday, September 17

Dull damp day
and a call early
from Dr Rapman.
Maureen gave me
my whisky and milk
in the morning and got me up in an easy chair then. She brought into my bed room for luncheon. Wrote up my diary in a loose leaf for the last few days. Back to bed about 3 o'c and slept till 5. Tea and then I gave Observer a good read, before and after dinner.
Wished [illegible]
all my family at Crowborough

Monday, September 18

Woke at 7.30 am
rang for my hot-water. Did usual arranging of things over after. Made the [illegible] my [illegible] before my [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] at nine [illegible] the New Zealand [illegible]
Then Dr. [illegible]
gave me a brief and [illegible]. Then heard [illegible] [illegible] news of Hammarskjold

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
from [illegible].

Tuesday, September 19

Woke 7.30 and started my regular order of the day Dr Rapoport called and granted my wish with his man at Chua. It was about 9 o'c and I was already sitting in my easy chair
and he sat beside

Wednesday, October 11

This day and next were written up on Oct. 14 when I have not remembered anything Perhaps because nothing happened. I certainly stayed at home all day reading papers and sleeping in my chair. I believe it was a beautiful Autumn
day. Moura came up to dinner one night but left immediately after. Aunt Peter came to see me but did not stay to a meal

Thursday, October 12

I have exhausted my inventiveness concocting yesterday out of nothing into nothing I rather think it was this [illegible] that my dear Moira came
No I think it was last because yesterday I think I felt curiously ill - one of my turns in fact. But I felt better after my rest and I slept
particularly well.
We are certainly having lovely weather

Friday, October 13

Dr Rifkin came at 9

18th. Sunday evening of November 19. Dr Rippman came when I was sleeping and we did not go out of bedroom. Tel. Ida and she said she would like to come to lunch tomorrow. I had lunch on tray in sitting room
and slept in afternoon or at least I think I did. Nothing of particular happened that I can remember. I think it was a gray mild day
and I probably slept in my chair
after dinner

Saturday November 18

Written Sunday 7 P.M.
Finished bath and all about 10.30. Sat at desk. Till Before and we planned Catharine's visit. Ida Carrick came to luncheon
or I think she did.
I think I sat on in my chair and then rested in bed but did not sleep in the afternoon but slept after dinner
and then they awoke
after 1 o'clock at night. But I really cannot remember
with any certainty
what I did.

Sunday, November 19

Woke and rung for Matilda at 7.20
Breakfast and dressed 9 o'c. Walked with sticks to sitting room and started to read Observer 10 o'c. Fell asleep 11-12 Betty tel. will come to lunch 1.10. Thomas came a little before 1 o'c and we started our sparring before Betty. Then we had a pleasant time together. The boys left about 3.30 and I slept 4-5. Up and tea 6 o'c.
Had my whiskey at 7 o'c. Phyllis Wadsworth tel. will come to lunch. on Wednesday

Monday, November 20

Finished morning
letters and sat down at my desk 10.45
Worked on letter to Catharine with $500. for her trip to England on a 17
day tour. Luncheon on a tray in sitting room and I worked
there on my stick.
Sat on half asleep rest and then went to up but did not sleep.
Finished letter to Catharine and gave to Matilda to post Sat on and had dinner on a tray and then slept in chair

Tuesday, November 21

Up at desk 10.30
and had my milk
early to assist my appetite for a luncheon of dates and milk, which went very well, on a tray in sitting room and then I had cheese and grapes after and again dozed in my chair and then lay awake at night rest but eventually got to sleep before five when I got up and found Alfreda here and we had tea together before she went to dinner with Freda, Then she went on to Ann's and got home about 10.30.

Wednesday, November 22

Alfreda knocked in about 9 o'c [illegible] ready to breakfast I had breakfast in bed and bath and dressed after. Then I hobbled into sitting room and sat by the fire. Alfreda, out but back for lunch. I rested otherwise in the afternoon but woke and up 5-6.
Alfreda out but back for tea. Then at 7 o'c went to Jean's for dinner and drinks before. I tel. Gladys Robertson who has lost her voice.
Whiskey at 7 o'c. John Matthews called, Matilda came for me at 10.30

Thursday, November 23

Alfreda came back from Eton at 3. A. M. I had breakfast in bed at 9
and was in sitting room when Mr Watson called at 10.30 to try on suits. Alfreda out to lunch with Pinkie. Mr Rawlins
tel. wants A. to come 11.30 Monday. Lunch
on tray in sitting room Rested. Alfreda back for tea then left for Spectator Cocktail party.
Sat at desk. Paid bills Alfreda [illegible] went with others for dinner after party and home 1 A.M.

Friday, November 24

Alfreda up late and then sat about most of morning. Then out for a little shopping
and back for lunch.
She went before to-Amberley while I was resting and I had and then cocktails
~~The~~ Read papers and dozed in chair again after.
Read papers again. Then to was dinner and asleep early. Matilda likes to put me to bed but she wants to get to bed herself about 10.
I was very sleepy
and quite glad to retire when she came

Saturday, November 25

Spent morning dealing with an ugly pile of papers at my desk.
Ida came to lunch
and the sun was pouring in dining-room windows I thought she looked very pale and thin and she said she felt rather tired after staying with Patricia & I rested after lunch and then had tea and Evening I [illegible] Tel to ask how Gladys Robertson was after she had lost her voice and she answered herself and says she was much better. I was sound asleep when Matilda put me to bed.

Sunday, November 26

Rather a wakeful night - but - feel much better than yesterday Dr Rupnden called up to enquire about 9 p.m.
He will call tomorrow morning. Breakfast
in bed, then bath and then sat by woodfire in drawing room. After [illegible] finishing his Thesis Cagnat came to lunch
w. Mrs Tamay. Monica came to see me before lunch She is going to N.Y. tomorrow I gave her $50. but I [illegible] in a bad state mentally. [illegible] on a [illegible]. Rested and felt better [illegible] Lady Robertson and Monica who has to [illegible] S.S. tomorrow

Took pains to get up in time as Dr Rippin had said he would come about 10. I was sitting by wood fire when he arrived at 12.30. He said my attacks of incapacity were normal at old age which he stressed and should be disregarded but general was good and alcohol but not too much. Mrs Bagman came to me and asked my room fire and carpet. Dozed in chairs. Walked out to buy cheese. Rested after lunch and then had tea after which Lady Stackwood came for a drink. Sat at my desk dealing with papers before and after dinner

Up 7.30. Had night of strange troublous dreams approaching of night-mare Rang for Matilda and had dry hot water to drink 7.30.. Then usual operations and was sitting in easy chair at 10.30
Very tired. Window Cleaner came and I gave him Xmas Box

Alfreda Stout

St. Andrew's Day

Brian is safe in hospital
She went out shopping
And to lunch but I saw her again after tea for a drink. Then she went out again for dinner and then She spent the evening out, I think at the bldg and then at a party that she asked Betty Wagner for her friends He didn't know any of them and she [illegible] was around till near midnight when they were getting ready to go. However she took it with good humour

Friday, December 1

Alfreda here but left before lunch to have the boys at Amberley for Sunday. She hears from Congo that Brian is out of hospital. I sat in drawing room and Frida came to see me and we talked about our religious background. After lunch tried the plan of not resting in the hope of sleeping better at night, but felt so awfully ill for temp went bolted up to 100°. Up [illegible] tea and late cake. Dinner on a tray and slept in Chair

Saturday, December 2

Breakfast in bed sat at desk. W. Moore ms $ and Mrs Cand (25)
must find her address
And at last I found
I had entered the name
as her friend and hostess Christmas Evans in my address book, so I sent off my letter and cheque After lunch sat in the big dining room with the windows open. Rested Tea soon after 5 and

Thursday, December 7

Druggist made a dose bag of water. Alfreda came in about 1.30. She went out for a permanent wave at 10.30. Read Times on Eichmann's trial, Mr. Lady Hardwicks. Paid Bobby for laundry. Alfreda left for Ashburley 12 A.M. Sat at desk fiddling with papers and in binding to wait to Heatter. Lunch was in sitting room and sat on quilting very sleepy. Finally went to rest but could not sleep. Up from bed 5.30. Blew green wood fire

Did not write this page until Dec 13 when I could not be sure what I did I think I sat and dozed in chair and looked sleepily at papers and that was about all
I went to see Polly Paddleston between tea and dinner as one of those drops
and had a glass of sherry and the rest of the day was spent
as usual.

Saturday, December 9

written up later
and the principal
thing about the day is that Ida came to lunch. She has been having medical treatment of disease and she looks pale and ill. I slept
as usual in the afternoon, and probably I had two drinks and slept
in my chair after dinner

Sunday, December 10

Sat at my desk
drank my hot milk
Came Mahdey her chuggie She brought me a hot water bottle for my always cold feet.
Sat at my desk all morning and in arm chair when I was asleep when Peter
tel. and took me to see his house which seems very nice but needs complete decoration. I am not sure but I suppose he comes to lunch, and I no doubt rested after

Monday, December 11

Woke 4:30 and could not get to sleep again up 7.15 put on my cardigan and dressing gown and opened the window got back to bed and rang for Matilda who brought me hot water to drink Spent morning with my old Cheque book which I had neglected since my accident. Could not get them in order Macaroni luncheon on a tray and then sat up looking at Time and could not sleep when I went to rest. Up for tea at 5 and read papers till whiskey at 7.30 rested before and after dinner

Tuesday, December 12

Spent morning
writing to Calpayne
about her visit
and cakes on Christmas. Expected
Alfreda any time today but she did not come for lunch returned I lunched on a tray now for tea. I rested drowsily in a chair and did not sleep
when I rested in my bed. Alfreda arrived between tea and dinner and sat with me till 6.15 when she went to dinner and out till 1 A.M.

Wednesday, December 13

up 7.30 and up
and dressed about nine after breakfast in bed. Refresh up about nine and telephoned to Pinkie
who has had a car accident and cut her face. I tel. Chester about Ganymede and then wrote to Huddleston I did not remember when I was writing y yesterday that Peter came in his car at 11.15 and took me to see his house very nice but in utter need of decoration

Thursday, December 14

Alfreda here and we went together down in the lift and through the restaurant out into the garden for a little walk and then we came back, and she went to lunch at Scotts in Piccadilly Circus with a boy friend. Moura back from a seventeen day trip to New York came to lunch and arrived at 1.20 after Matilda had angrily said "That woman is always late"
which I consider very much against her. Alfreda came back to dinner.

Friday, December 15

Addressed cards to Gisela and Ida.
Mrs Frey's men came to lay the carpet and I moved into sitting room. Alfreda went [illegible] shopping. Gladys Rabkesteds came to see me. Alfreda met her in the hall. She came back just before
lunch when she went out and only came back after tea when we had a pleasant time together until she went out to dinner and until 4 A.M

Saturday, December 16

Alfred dr off to Amberley. I sat in sitting room and opened today's Christmas cards. Matilda when consulted slightly demurred from moving Ida to lunch so I did not ask her. W. thanks for Christmas cards & sent mine Rested as usual after lunch. Tea and dinner as usual. Slept deeply and to bed early and Alfred u in about 12 M.

Sunday, December 17

Sent out more Christmas Cards and released ones that I had received for the already crowded mantle piece. Sat by wood fire reading Schreiber as Eichmann's W. Chopin for Matilda's book by Pfinales Peter brought Thomas came to lunch and we had sherry before as usual. Thomas
working his head
for his examinations to go to Amberley
Telephone B.O.A.C. phone

Christmas Card:
Sat at desk and then in sitting Evans and Peter called and I gave him list
of presents for the John Hamburgers
which he was to get at Harrods. Freda came from Amberley
– thanks for lunch
Rested as usual
up for tea and then addressed Christmas cards. Alfreda came and told me that Anna and Richard Wahlheim were here and I went on to see them. They left with A. Dinner on a tray and bed early

Tuesday, December 19

This has been a blank day. I did not go out or accomplish anything in doors. Perhaps I arranged the papers on my desk in a little better order but I have nothing to show for it. I had luncheon on a tray in sitting room and rested in the afternoon, then read papers and I think Ruth may have called.

Wednesday, December 20

Spent the morning addressing envelopes for Kingston House staff and putting in the money. Matilda had got me the 1 pound notes and the 10 shilling notes. I gave a boxing day tip of a pound to the Kingston House post-man. Rested in the afternoon as usual and read the papers after tea and had drinks. Fell asleep in chair after dinner and woke up late for bed

Thursday, December 21

Out-shopping with Alfreda in the morning and got Katie [illegible] her ear-rings for Christmas and got cuff links for Bobbie, Alfreda and I lunched at home and all the children gathered here and I gave them their presents and promised Thomas his boat
at the time and then they all left for Amherst about six o'c.
I had drinks and early dinner and early to bed. Tel from Peter

To Jenny

Friday, December 22

Dull day and I am still feeling low. Sat at desk writing up diary from memory and certainly not accurately. Opened cards from Marsden Whiting Louis van Arnim, Adelaide Mead. Victor Jones! Moira came to lunch when we did not expect her. She said that she told Alfreda who said it would be all right but Alfreda did not tell me or Matilda To rest 3 o'c. up 5 addressed cards. Made drinks rum & then

Saturday, December 23

Beautiful day but out for walk in garden helped by Sporta Skimming luncheon on tray in sitting room and slept as usual in the afternoon. John Mathias came Whiskey arrived at last, due for several days but Briggs man says they are overwhelmed with orders at this Christmas season. I slept in chair after dinner as generally happens when I am alone.

Sunday, December 24

Peter telephoned to say he was not coming to lunch today but would come tomorrow and would like to bring an Italian girl whom he met in Naples. Spent morning at my desk sorting Christmas cards. Luncheon on tray in sitting room. Rested deeply in the afternoon. Opened last of my cards from Ruth The S.P.S Pelican came as usual, I think fortnightly - Slept in chair after dinner & and late to bed

Monday, December 25

Christmas Day
QUARTER DAY

Woke 7.30. Up as usual to open window and put on grey Cardigan and Dressing gown. Breakfast in bed as usual. Sat at desk and w. cheque of £7.10.0 for Matilda. Sat in chair by fire and went to sleep. Petts came with this Paola from Naples. They went out to walk about three o'c and I went to rest. I got up at 4.45 and they came back and we all went in his car to John's Christmas Tree. They gave me a treatment then Petts's Paola drinks

Tuesday, December 26

St. Stephen's Day
Boxing Day

Sat - at desk looking at Christmas cards.
I am writing this up on Saturday December 30 from non-existent memory but I know that Peter came to lunch today and after that I mostly slept but I spent some time over the evening papers found for J. Clarke's (later) that my drinks at seven and dinner as a tray in sitting room at 8 o'clock and then I slept in my chair until about 1 o'c evening I went to

Wednesday, December 27

Rainy day and I did not go out and nobody came in. I went to Lady Hardwicke for a drink on one of these nights. It might have been tonight. She telephoned and asked me to come. She is a nice friendly woman from I think New Zealand and her daughter has married Lord [illegible] so she is well established socially. And we are neighbours here in Kingston House and find it easy and pleasant to see each other

Maura telephoned to know how I was.
but curiously I felt very tired and I made no effort to all day. I spent the morning in straightening out my correspondence without having much to show for
it. Slept in chair
after lunch and then went to rest and slept again but in vivid dreams. with Peter figuring. Dinner on a tray and then fell asleep as seems necessary unless I have guests

Friday, December 29

I have felt better today in fact nothing of the matter. The only trouble is that I am weak. I wrote a couple of letters to America on which Matilda has to pay (A class today. Lunch on a tray and slept in chair with the result that I did not sleep deeply but seemed to be dreaming awake. I think Peter is spending Sunday at Ashley Manor Sutton Dick Cowen's estate

Saturday, December 30

Up as usual at 7.30 and had finished breakfast and was at my desk by 9 o'c W.S.C.'s ~~h~~ Annual dinner Jan. letter and Mary Churchill Humphrey.
Telephone from Alfreda in Amberley and from Gladys Robertson in Lobkas
and pleasant talks with both. Rested in afternoon Then up and tea in sitting room and later drinks. I read E. Standard. Dinner
on a tray by Matilda Sat at my desk after dinner -
